

Rude, Wasn't it?

Matthew 20:16

It was rude of you, wasn't it,
to arrive here, first,
to some old village-man
and that compromised girl;
to spend your first night
amongst animals
while we waited with our retinues?

It was rude of you, wasn't it,
to send your message, first,
to riff-raff on a hill side.

It was rude of you,
to let those three
clever-clever, unclean big-shots find you first,
and not include our own chap.

It was rude of you, wasn't it,
to state that
we'd been getting it wrong,
all along.
Whose side were you on?

First and last,
we don't tolerate that.

God, it was rude!
Wasn't it?

©Lucy Berry, 2018

Permission is given for non-profit reuse

For more about this poem, and the issues that it raises, visit

jointpublicissues.org.uk/advent