

Hope overflows (The butterfly poem)

This poem can be read during an online or in-person service, during a time of personal reflection or prayer.

Hope overflows

In a dry land

Where butterflies dance

In the cascading water

That runs and fills up

The buckets of a community.

A stream of hope

Captured to quench

Sustain

And grow.

In this dry land

Water is drawn up

To bring sprouts of ambition.

The dance of butterflies

Beckons hope in.

For in this dry land they grow hope.

Hope will not disappoint us.

+ This resource was originally published by All We Can, and reproduced here with permission for the Season of Creation 2021

- + This work may be shared freely, with attribution, without modification.
- + For more resources, visit www.jointpublicissues.org.uk/creation